IV. Convention Decision and Final Unit Assessment

The Arctic Region Convention's final defining criteria:

ESSAY PROMPT:

Please write a description of how the Arctic Region Convention defined the Arctic region and how it came to make that decision. Then write what you learned from this experience and how you contributed to both your group as well as to the council. Your final product will be a two to three paragraph essay. Please remember to use all of the writing elements we have been working on in class, including proper grammar and conventions, as well as organization that includes a brief introduction, conclusion and transitions.
